

10 YEARS AT GREATMORE STUDIOS

" We cannot compete with America and what the rest of the first world countries can offer, but what we can offer we give greatly and generously. So if you are a person with soul, a person that can connect with other people that does not only want yet can also give, then you will find this a home."
Lionel Davis

"The future is here. Changes will occur...one must have changes"
..... Velile Soha.

The next challenges are to set up a print making studio, provide more studio space and get our new events space on the map with exciting, innovative, experimental show and workshops.
.....Jill Trappler

“An art workshop should be a quiet place where one concentrates on the work, where distractions are eliminated, where one learns how to deflect that which inhibits creativity.”

Bill Ainslie
